

WESTERN KINGBIRD

Coloring Page

The Western Kingbird is gray with yellow plumage. They can be found across western North America. The Western Kingbird enjoys catching flying insects while perched on a tree or utility line. They also eat fruits. Western Kingbirds can be aggressive, chasing away other birds that come near.

